2. MONETARY SECTOR

2.1 Monetary and Credit Development

Broad money (M2) increased by 8.96 percent at the end of September FY24 compared to that of September FY23. Of the sources of broad money, Net Domestic Asset (NDA) increased by 14.19 percent while Net Foreign Asset decreased by 12.64 percent. Despite strong public sector credit growth, government borrowing from the banking system contributed to the less than expected credit growth in the private sector. Broad money growth in September FY24 was -0.53 percent compared to that of June FY23.

3. EXTERNAL SECTOR

3.1 Exports

In September FY24, total export continued to grow above the strategic target. Export increased by 9.51 percent after September FY24 compared to the export after September FY23. This higher growth in export is due to strong rebound in demand for apparels in the major export destinations of Bangladesh, as the economies are recovering from the shock of the Covid-19 pandemic.

3.3 Remittances

Workers' remittances in September FY24 decreased by 13.51 percent to USD 4,906.95 million against USD 5,673.45 million in September FY23. Various initiatives of the Government to incentivize remittance inflow such as 2.5 percent cash incentive, easing the rules on the furnishing of documents and depreciation of exchange rate (BDT/USD) might have worked on the overseas migrants to send remittances through legal channel. The rising number of labour migration in FY22 may also have a positive impact on inward remittances.
